

MEMORY JOGGER FOR WEEKLY MATCH RESULTS AND REPORTS

Before the game:

- Each side fills in an ECB card team sheet.
- Hand those to umpires
- Div 1—Pay GACUS appointed umpires

After the game:

- Agree result, scores, bonus points for both teams
- Note good performances, with full names for both teams
- Home team – ensure you have the full scorecard – even if the game is abandoned.
- Home side keeps both ECB card team sheets unless there is a GACUS appointee
- Div 1—Captains agree on GACUS umpires' performance

By 10 a.m. the next day:

- Home side enters, on its own play-cricket web site, the result, team score and wickets, who batted first, bonus points, good performances, with full names. Whether the game is played, cancelled or abandoned.

By midnight Wednesday following the game:

- Home side enters, on its own play-cricket web site, full scorecards for both innings. Required for played and abandoned games. Not required for cancelled games.
- Div 1—Home side fills in form on www.gccl.org.uk on GACUS umpires' performance.

By midnight Wednesday following the game:

- Away side fills in report on facilities etc, using the form on www.gccl.org.uk. Not required for cancelled games.

By midnight Wednesday following the game:

- Any unregistered players taking part must be registered by adding the name in the squad on the club's play-cricket database and re-sending the database to the league in the way described on the web-site help pages.

Within 10 days of a disciplinary incident either club sends a letter to the League Secretary, or uses the form on www.gccl.org.uk
